DATE OF REVIEW: June 2020

About Us

Speld Qld is a not for profit organisation whose mantra is to support people experiencing a learning difference. Working in partnership with Education Queensland, we are located beside the Autism Hub and Reading Centre and provide services to State, Catholic and Independent schools, across the State and to clients ranging in age from 4 to 74.

Our service provides:

- An advisory line for parent and professionals
- Academic and psychometric assessments
- Specialist Teacher (tutor) service
- Advising on Assistive Technology
- Library service for members
- Professional development for Parents, Teachers and Schools
- Publications
- Ongoing consultation and support

All programs used and promoted by Speld are evidenced and researched based.

What we are looking for

We are seeking a literacy coach who is trained in Sounds-Write. We have plenty of students who are seeking tutoring with this program, both local and remote. As a coach you will need to be confident in providing this service on an online platform for those who are in remote areas. Parents are generally seeking a before or after school tutor so availability during this time is crucial.

Purpose of the role

As an employee of Speld, assist in the delivery of Intensive Literacy coaching.

We are seeking qualified people to assist Speld in growing the delivery of this program in 2020 and offer intervention to clients in Alternate Education Centres and Youth Detention Centres. These sessions may be offered either face to face or online.

In this role, you will

- Provide Sounds-Write tutoring to students and adults
- Conduct lessons both in person and through an online platform
- Work from the Speld office at Woolloongabba, or at a school which has engaged our services.

What we offer

An attractive remuneration package, including:

- Competitive salary, depending on experience
- Generous salary packaging options to increase your take home pay

About you – essential criteria, experience, knowledge and skills

- Bachelor qualification, such as Education, Speech Pathology, Psychology
- Must be trained in Sounds-Write
- Blue Card or Blue Card Exemption (Working with Children Check)
- Familiar with using zoom, skype or other video conferencing technology
- Able to work with a diverse range of students
- Willing to attend Professional Development offered through Speld Qld

Applying for this position

Email your application to speld@speld.org.au consisting of:

- Cover letter addressing the selection criteria
- Resume
- A copy of your Sounds-Write Certificate
