

Learning Difficulties Conference

Relevance and Revelations: Responding to Learning Difficulties

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

FRIDAY 17 SEPTEMBER 2021

Toni Hatten-Roberts – Biographical Summary, 2021

Toni has a wide and diverse experience in education having served as a teacher in early childhood, primary school and secondary school; a regional advisor for mathematics, science, outdoor education and gifted education; a Head of Curriculum; a Deputy

Principal; and a Director of Education. Toni is currently a Director and Lead Consultant for COGlearn.

Toni has a Bachelor of Education and Bachelor of Social Science – Psychology (Honours). Her original research into the importance of verbal rehearsal in learning was recognized through her participation in the International Conference of Learning Sciences in London in 2018. She is currently a PHD candidate at the University of Queensland.

